

Please do not lessen the restrictions now in place with regard to telemarketing calls. Life has been near bliss without the constant interruptions and persistence of these individuals. A true "invasion" of our privacy as well in it's preexisting state. Thank you.